

Marathon Yacht Club Educational Foundation Scholarships for High School Seniors Guidelines and Application Instructions

Scholarship Guidelines

The Marathon Yacht Club Educational Foundation (MYCEF) will give a $1000.00 scholarships to a senior at Marathon High School who will be attending a vocational school or college for Marine Services, Sciences and Trades.

Qualifications

First consideration will be given to high school students employed at the Marathon Yacht Club or children of employees of MYC. These students will follow the steps for application also.

The applicant will have been involved in a program in the Marine area while in high school or have worked in the Marine area in Marathon. The Hobe Burch applicant will have been involve in a social work or medical program while in high school or have worked in social work or a medical field in Marathon.

The applicant will have applied to and plan to attend a school to further his or her career. Student must show proof of enrollment.

Application

To apply for the MYCEF scholarship, an applicant must compile the following requirements and deliver the completed package on or before April 24.

1. At least one letter of recommendation from a teacher,
2. A letter written by the applicant, between one and two pages, typed using 12 pt., responding to the items below:
 1. Name, address, phone number and email address
 2. Unweighted and weighted GPA
 3. SAT and/or ACT score
 4. List of school activities and clubs
 5. List of the number of hours and description of community service performed while in high school
 6. List of jobs held and description of work experience
 7. List of your goals and chosen field of study
 8. List of any special family circumstances
 9. Description of your work ethic
 10. Tell us why you deserve this scholarship

Mail or deliver to:

Marathon Yacht Club Educational Foundation
Attn: Scholarship Committee
825 33rd Street Gulf

Marathon, FL 33050

Scholarship Money

This money is to be used for tuition, books, room and board. The money will be accessible through the bookkeeper in the Marathon High School office.

The scholarships will be presented by an MYC Educational Foundation board member or designee at Marathon High School Class Night, which is the Tuesday before graduation.